Thou Art The Man

The GAME was smuggling gems.

The PLACE, the fabulous diamond fields of South Africa.

The POWER behind, a gang of thieves who stopped at no crime on the calendar.

The VICTIM, a big, two fisted soldier of fortune who went to jail for the girl he loved and got the crooks in the end.

Millinery Opening

Saturday, May 8

New Leghorn, Tuscan and Horsehair Hats, artistically trimmed with flowers, lace and ribbons.

A wonderful collection of the popular Sport Hats, in the smartest straw and fabric effects; also the new navy blue Taffeta Hats.

We are the agent for the celebrated Gage Hats, and have a cheaper grade of the ever becoming Sailor.

You will find a large stock of the dark-colored Hats, which we will offer that day at a great reduction.

Models will show you the correct way the hats are worn.

BRATTLEBORO LOCAL

The Ladies' Catholic Benevolent association gave a progressive whist party and dance last evening in the Knights of Columbus hall, which was well attended. Cards were played from 8 to 9.30, during which time Miss Genevieve Murphy, Floyd Johnson and C. L. Davenport, rendered music. They also played for dancing until midnight.
During the evening ice cream, punch and cake were on sale. Mrs. H. E.
Whitney, jr., Mrs. J. C. Murphy and Mrs. Charles Smith were in charge of the ice cream and punch and Mrs. C. J.
Palo was at the cake table. The prizes at cards were won by John Manning, man's first; Mrs. John Curry, ladies' first; consolation, J. F. Austin and Miss B. Curry.

BRATTLEBORO PERSONAL

Edward Elmer went yesterday to his home in Shirley, Mass., to visit over Sunday. He will then go to Bristol, Conn., where he has employment.

Miss Emma Putnam has returned from Northfield (Vt.), where she spent the winter in the home of Prof. A. W.
Pench, and is staying in the home of her brother, Fred W. Putnam of Terrace street.

TEN YEARS FOR A GIRL.

Ursula Broderick, 16, Killed Her Stepfather, J. F. Woodlock.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 7. — Ursula Broderick, 16, who killed her stepfather, Joseph F. Woodlock, in their home here April 14, 1919, was found guilty of murder in the second degree by a jury in the juvenile court here last night and her punishment fixed at 10 years in the Missouri penitentiary.

HANDLE NO SCAB BREAD.

Clerks, Cooks and Waiters Combine to Help Union Bakers.

HAVERHILL, Mass., May 7.—The retail clerks union announced today beginning Monday its members would refuse to handle bread not union made. Similar action has been taken by the cooks and waiter's union in support of the bakers, who are striking for $45 a week.

SELLING CLOTHING AT COST.

A Topeka Store Will Make no Profit for 24 Days.

TOPEKA Kan., May 7.—An old established Topeka clothing store today advertised that all men's suits for 24 days would be sold without profit to the store.
The state fair-price commissioner will audit the store's books to ascertain whether the suits are sold at cost.

VERMONT NEWS.

T memorial tablet will be unveiled in the Waterbury high school building next week in memory of Lieut. Perry Aldridge, who was killed in the World war. He was at one time assistant principal in the school there.

The milk distributors in Middlebury have cut down the price of milk from 17 cents per quart, where it has stood for six months, to 12 cents per quart and the price of cream has been correspondingly reduced.

Secretary of State Black calls attention to the fact that some trucks are not equipped with mirrors as provided by law and that shortly some of these persons may find their trucks out of commission unless the matter is attended to promptly.

Principal J. A. Davis of St. Johnsbury academy has resigned, to accept the position of supervising prefect at Girard college in Philadelphia. Mr. Davis' resignation takes effect at the close of the present school year and he will enter upon his duties in the fall.

Linus Leavens, fish and game commissioner, has arranged with the Massachusetts commissioner to secure 150 pheasant eggs and he will make an effort to establish some of these birds in Vermont forests. No effort has been made along these lines since Dr. Webb tried to propagate the fowls at Shelburne.

The Montpelier board of trade has appointed a committee to investigate the establishment of an aviation field in or near Montpelier. According to the aerial book there are three emergency fields in Vermont, Bennington, Windsor and a race course in Montpelier. This one which is on the country club grounds and two other sites are under consideration.

Eight members of the Middlebury fire department (volunteer) have handed in their resignations to Chief Edward Higgins. The resignations were accepted and the positions vacated were filled almost immediately. The attitude of the village toward the department is said to have been the cause of the trouble.

Mrs. Leon R. Richards, of White River Junction, who served abroad as a war nurse, has received a citation signed by Major-Gen. John J. Pershing as commander-in-chief of the American Expeditionary Force for "exceptionally meritorious and conspicuous services in evacuation hospital No. 6, Souilly, France." Her husband was an overseas man from Royalton.

Mrs. Raymond E. Howard of Bennington sustained a fractured collarbone, a fractured and dislocated wrist and injuries to her back when she fell from the roof of a shed at the rear of her house while hanging out clothes on a pulley clothes line. She lost her balance when the rope broke and fell to the ground a distance of 20 feet.

Two blowouts on a Ford car, and an approaching team saved eight-year-old Sidney Claffin of Charlotte from being kidnapped at four o'clock Monday afternoon.
A strange man who seized the boy and threw him in the car was forced to run for it after the delay of repairing his tires had made it necessary for him to pass an approaching team. The boy was the son of Sidney Claffin a prosperous Charlotte farmer who was on his way home from school when the Ford car drew up side of him. A man jumped from the car into the mud of the ditch, seized the youngster by the shoulders and threw him into the car and continued northward towards Burlington.

MISSOURI OPPOSES LEAGUE.

Republicans Send Uninstructed Delegates to Convention.

KANSAS, CITY, Mo., May 7.—Eight delegates at large to the Republican national convention, uninstructed as to presidential preference, were elected by the Republican state convention, which adjourned late yesterday.

Resolutions adopted by the convention included sections condemning the league of nations covenant without reservations, and demanding that all laws be strictly enforced.

Two of the delegates at large are women, and the eight alternates named are all women. Two presidential electors at large and sixteen district electors also were elected.

MUST WEAR OVERALLS.

Wear Laborer's Garb.

CHICAGO, May 7.—Members of the city council committee investigating high prices must appear in overalls at the first meeting tomorrow, according to instructions they received today from their chairman.

THREATEN STRIKE IN BERLIN.

Bank Employees Demand Increase in Wages.

BERLIN, May 7.—At a meeting of bank employees yesterday a resolution was passed for the delivery to the bank of an ultimatum in which the employees declare they will quit work on May 10 if allowances in compensation for the high cost of living are not granted.
